

Christiane DeAnza

1448 Alfonse Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 10041
(204) 321-1234 chrisda@email.com

OBJECTIVE

Position as instructor of Spanish, including curriculum development, design of teaching materials, and course evaluation

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Six years experience teaching Spanish at all levels to various groups
- Strong practical and theoretical background in development and selection of course materials
- Successful and confident in classroom presentation and control
- Proven effective in program design and administration

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Classroom Teaching

- Taught Spanish as a second language in high school classroom
 - Beginning, intermediate, & advanced students
- Taught Spanish as a second language to foreign employees for private companies
- Taught Spanish as a second language to children of foreign workers

Curricula Development & Course Evaluation

- Improved existing curriculum for Spanish, incorporating more cultural studies and reading of literature into existing course work

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

- ST. Christopher's High School, Philadelphia, PA September, 1998 to present
Teach all levels of Spanish, develop and implement course curriculum, design course materials, mentor Spanish Club
- Madrid School of Language, Madrid, Spain June, 1995 to August, 1998
Taught beginning, intermediate & advanced Spanish
- Montalba Industries, Inc., Madrid, Spain June, 1992 to June, 1995
Taught Spanish as a second language to foreign employees, developed courses to teach their children as well, at the request of management

EDUCATION & CREDENTIALS

- Madrid University, Madrid, Spain 1995
Masters Degree in Spanish, Language & Culture
- Wesleyan University, Middleton, CT 1992
Bachelor of Arts, Spanish and English
- Life Credential to teach Spanish, K through 12 1998

Excellent References Available upon Request